The Bank of East Asia (China) Limited ("the Bank") may, at its own discretion or as required by laws and regulations and/or by the provisions of the supervisory authorities, amend the terms in respect of costs, accounts and services hereunder from time to time. The Bank shall not be responsible for informing its customers in the event that amendments are made subject to the changes of laws and regulations or supervisory authorities. Please refer to the Bank' s official website or written notice of the branches for actual amendments. The charges listed hereunder shall not include the fees and taxes charged by other organisations (including but not limited to other branches of the Bank and members of The Bank of East Asia Group in or outside Chinese Mainland) and relevant supervisory or governmental authorities. The aforementioned fees and taxes (if any) shall be paid in accordance with the rates set by the aforementioned organisations and relevant supervisory or governmental authorities. Unless otherwise specified, the charges in this document are denominated and paid in RMB. If the fee is paid in an alternative currency, it shall be of the same value as the denominated currency in accordance with the exchange rate issued by the Bank at the time of payment. The charges listed hereunder are set based on actual costs for labour, system operations and maintenance, communications, intermediate bank fees and other administrative costs, and also take into account the standard service fees charged for similar services by the domestic banking industry.

As authorised by The Bank of East Asia (China) Limited, some branches may offer preferential service fees due to local conditions or regulatory requirements. Please refer to the service charge announcement of the specific branch for any such additional service charge information.

The area, covered by In-city Business, is partitioned by prefecture-level city, and some branches expand their area to the remote branches.

This service charges take effect from May. 6th 2026.

Remarks1: SupremeGold Customer: Customers with a monthly average AUM ≥ RMB 500,000 or equivalent foreign currency from the previous month will move up to the "SupremeGold" tier in the current month, valid for one year.
SupremeGold Diamond: Customers with a monthly average AUM ≥ RMB 6,000,000 or equivalent foreign currency from the previous month will move up to the "SupremeGold Diamond" tier in the current month, valid for one year.
Customer's AUM (Asset Under Management) monthly average balance includes but is not limited to: CASA, structured deposits, RMB fund, QDII, asset management products, trusts, and insurance products. AUM monthly average balance is calculated by dividing the sum of the daily financial asset balances for a given month by the total number of days in that month. BEA China conducts regular monthly maintenance and updates of customer tiers within the validity period to ensure customers can access the upgraded benefits in time. The upgraded customer tier validity period will be extended by 12 months, with a reassessment conducted in the 12th month (the assessment month) of the validity period. If the customer's AUM monthly average balance in the assessment month meets the criteria for a higher tier, the customer tier will be automatically upgraded the following month. If the customer's AUM monthly average balance meets the current tier criteria in any one of the three months before the assessment month (including the assessment month), the customer tier will remain unchanged. Otherwise, both the customer tier and associated benefits will be automatically adjusted accordingly.
